SESSUICENTENNIAL 1986

By Bette Landers

This sign caused Mayor Barnes to have numerous phone calls the day it was hung. It seems the company that made the banners, left out the "TE," and a lot of alert Oregon spellers let the Mayor know it. It took a few weeks before the error was corrected, but everything was right by the time the festival rolled around. (Donna Kennedy photo)

Another of the many activities planned for Oregon's 150th Birthday was the historical dinner put on by the Oregon Methodist Women on Sept. 20. Over 800 enjoyed the seven-course historical meal prepared by Mrs. Robert Gigous and her crew of about 40 helpers.

Shown are waitresses: Connie Martin and server, Bette Landers. Enjoying the buffet table were Golda Harriett, Bob Gigous, Betsy Rosenbalm and daughter, Jennifer. (photo E.G. Landers)

The first meeting of the Sesquicentennial Committee was held May 23, 1985. The original committee members were Mayor James Barnes, George Bouska, Tom Shouer, Anne Geiken, Charles Mongan Sr., Cecil Bartow, John Franklin, Viola Myers and Ginger Pearson. As the meetings continued they were joined by Darlene Shouer, Pat Franklin, Lynne Kilker and Bette Landers.

To make such an undertaking successful, many people donated many hours of their time. It was a real privilege serving on this committee, and being a part of Oregon's 150th birthday celebration.

Many activities were planned, beginning with a historical dinner on Sept. 20th, 1986 put on by the Oregon United Methodist Church Women—close to 800 attended the three seatings. The ladies dressed in old-fashioned clothes. Sept. 27th was the Sesquicentennial Ball held at St. Mary's Community Center. Bob Kevern and his band entertained for about 100 guests. Many wore costumes of yesteryear. My dress was a beige chiffon Roaring 20s dress that belonged to Tim's mother. It was at least 50 years old and still very beautiful.

Sunday Sept. 28, a breakfast was held at the VFW Post Home 8739. In the afternoon events included The Lions Club Barbecue, an ice cream social sponsored by the Oregon Bible College, a free square dance and a beard judging contest. All of these activities were held on the Ogle County Courthouse Square in very inclement weather (that means rain and cold), but it didn't dampen any spirits.

In the evening we were treated to a beautiful Heritage of Faith Worship Service at the Coliseum. The Kings' Men Four Gospel Quartet from Rockford entertained to the delight of over 100 people. Many wore old-fashioned outfits again.

The business person's luncheon was held at the Oregon VFW Sept 29, and was attended by 50 people. Greeting people at the door were Mayor Jim Barnes, Viola Myers, Charles Mongan, and Chairman, Bette Landers. All were members of the Sesquicentennial Committee. (Lynne Kilker photo)

I should mention here that our storefronts were decorated with red, white and blue banners, and many businesses had historical windows for about a month, which really got everyone in the spirit of things.

Mr. Harry Nurmet and his crew rejuvenated the mural uptown, that he painted in 1968. Truly a part of our heritage.

Monday, Sept. 29 we held a business person's luncheon at the Oregon VFW Post Home. Mayor Barnes was the Master of Ceremonies. Tuesday night, Oregon's main industry people were recognized with a program at the Coliseum. Those honored were Don Reed, Rivers Edge Foundry; Ron Kern, Farm Bureau; Steve Korth, Atwoods; Roger Etnyre, E.D. Etnyre Co.; Lee Wright,

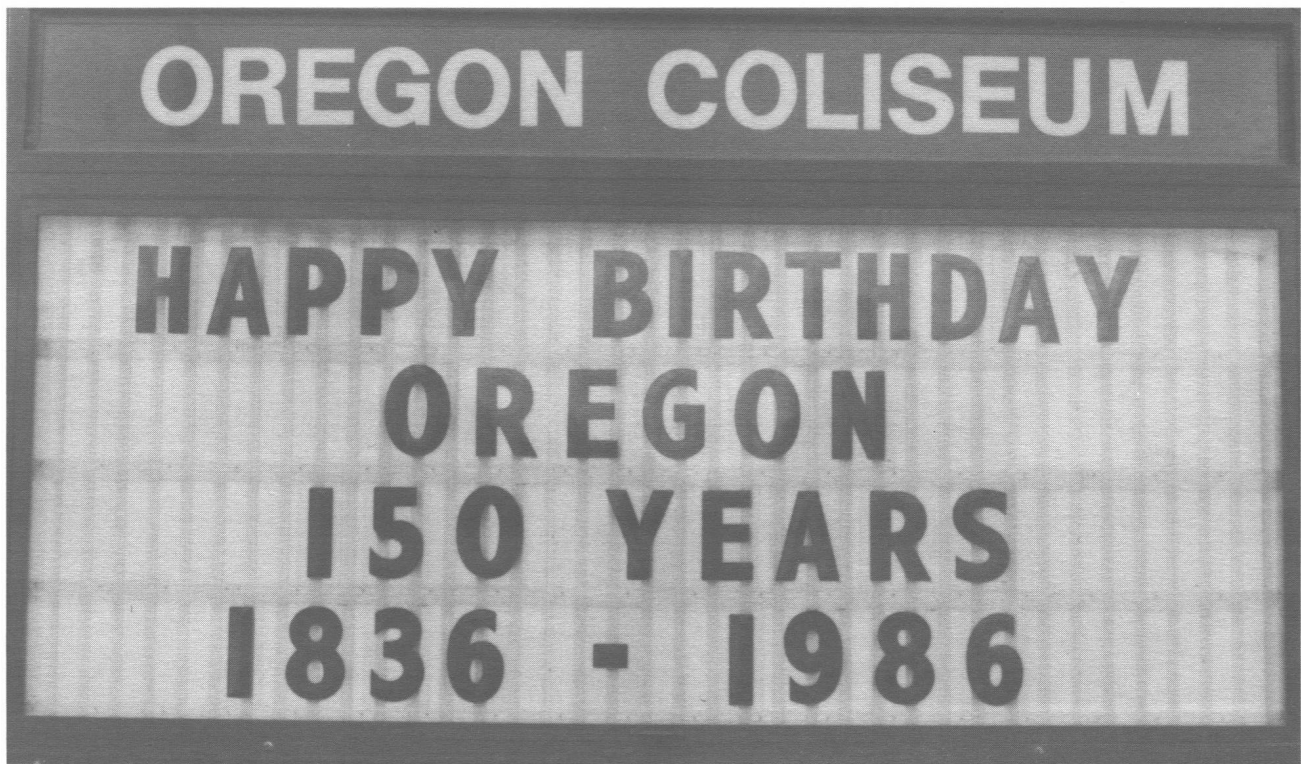

Note the "Reeboks" (tennis shoes) on the cowboy in the middle of picture two. Wyatt Earp would certainly turn over in his grave had he seen this. They probably are white with red laces—oh well—Go Hawks!! (E.G. Landers photo)

FHA; Fred Smith, Cook's; Rick Williams, Carnation Company; Dave Farber, Ogle Service; Ben Wiegmann, Farm Credit; D. Dean Dye, Dyco; Lynne Kilker, S and S Computype; Leonard Jones, Commonwealth Edison; Elmo Tudor, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Also receiving awards were Semel Jacobson, Metal Reclaimers; Dan Pratt, TCI Growth; Les Sanderson, Combined Communication Services; Carl Swon accepted for Continental Telephone; Jim Sura, Acme Resin; and Stan Eden, Ogle County Farm Extension.

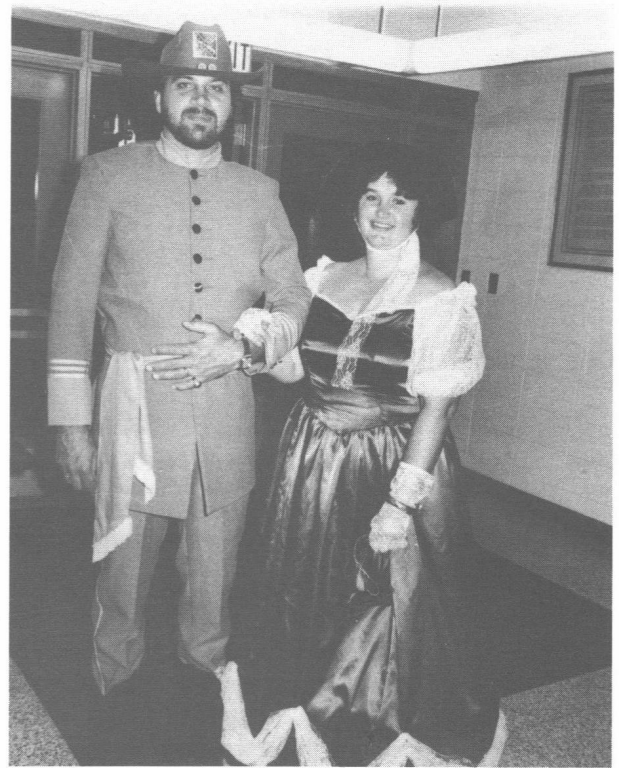

Wednesday, a ladies get-together was held at OGC.

Mr. Abraham Lincoln, portrayed by Harry Hahn, spoke again in Oregon Oct. 5th. Mr. Hahn has been recognized by the Illinois State Senate as a great Lincoln impersonator. It was indeed a pleasure to speak with "Honest Abe," our 16th United States President. (Charles Mongan photo)

The Civil War was even remembered at the Ball. Larry and Nancy Herrald made a handsome couple—he in grey, she in a lovely gown of royal blue satin. (E.G. Landers photo)

Also, the senior citizens were honored on this day. White Pines Living Center held an open house.

"Livin' on the River" opened Thursday, Oct. 2nd and ran for six performances at the Nash Rec Center. The cast of 75 brought to life 150 years of Oregon history. John Lindhorst was the director. Over 2,000 people were lucky enough to see and hear this magnificent show.

Friday night the Old English Banquet was held at Stronghold Castle. Kathryn Gelandner was guest of honor. Saturday and Sunday dawned damp and cold, but craft booths were set up around the courthouse square on the street, and the Harvest Time Parade with over 100 units went on as usual.

The burying of the Time Capsule on the Coliseum lawn Oct. 12, climaxed Oregon's 150th anniversary. The vault was donated by Neil Holland of the Farrell Holland Funeral Home and was filled with mementos from many Oregon families. The school children packed boxes, and the "Capsule" will be opened in 50 years.

This probably was one of the most exciting and emotional things to take place during our week's activities. Many of us will not be around in the year 2036, but we hope what we sealed in our envelopes will inspire those who open them, to carry on our hopes, wishes, dreams and goals for a safe, prosperous Oregon, and perhaps they'll think back to Oct. 12, 1986 with the 40 degree temperature and the dreary day when about 50 of us gathered together, with tears in our eyes and lumps in our throats as we passed on parts of our lives and family history to those who will carry on tradition and heritage.

"Love joins our present with the past and the future."

Truly knock-outs at the Ball were Robert and Mary Louise Hardesty. Everyone agreed the "old costumes" really made them feel so good, and took them back to the days of yesteryear. (E.G. Landers photo)

The window at Town and Country Ladies' Apparel store was most attractive. Many ladies were attracted to the model on the far right, and were interested in purchasing the coat. The items in front have been in the Patrick family for many years. (Donna Kennedy photo)

Oregon Mayor Jim Barnes carefully lays several "timeless" objects to rest Oct. 12 in the time capsule vault now buried on the lawn of the Coliseum. The vault was filled with envelopes, letters and keepsakes from nearly 100 people who hope to leave them to friends and relatives. The vault will be reopened in 50 years. Tim Landers photo.

The vault was furnished by the Sterling Wilbert Vault Company, and was given by Neil Holland of Farrell Holland Funeral Home. About 50 attended the ceremonies on Oct. 12, 1986. (Donna Kennedy photo)

Good food and fellowship were the main ingredients at the kick-off luncheon to begin the Sesquicentennial Celebration. (Lynne Kilker photo)

The City of Oregon thanked its business and industrial minds recently at a special recognition program. Pictured here, left to right, top row, are: Don Reed, Rivers Edge Foundry; Ron Kern, Farm Bureau; Steve Korh, Atwoods and Roger Etnyre, E.D. Etnyre. In the second row are Lee Wright, FHA; Fred Smith, Cook's; Rick Williams, Carnation Company; Dave Farber, Ogle Service; Ben Wiegmann, Farm Credit; D. Dean Dye, Dyco and Lynne Kilker, S and S Computype; Leonard Jones, Comm Ed and Elmo Tudor, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. The Sesquicentennial Ball was held at St. Mary's Community Center Sept. 27. About 100 attended, dancing to the music of the Bob Kevern Band from Rockford. Many wore costumes dating back to 1886. The winners were: left to right—Martin "Bud" Eakle and wife, Jill; Robert and Mary Louise Hardesty; Warren and Nancy Miller. Charles Himes and lady friend; Penny and Tim O'Rourke; Jim and Helga Therkildson; Nancy and Larry Herrald; Joanne and Charles Ehmen. Luke and Carrie Schier and children, Matthew and Vonna, represented the typical young Ogle County farm family of which they are. (E.G. Landers photo)

DOCUMENT OREGON'S SESQUICENTENNIAL WITH SPECIAL CANCELLATION STAMP

From Republican Reporter

Even if you've never collected a stamp in your life and you think that 'philately' is the Austrian word for hamster, there is something going on at the Oregon post office these days that may excite you.

It's called a one-day issue, or a special cancellation stamp.

Still stumped?

A cancellation stamp is like a proof of purchase seal—it's the imprint that 'cancels' the postage stamp in the upper right hand corner of a letter or post card.

If you've noticed, cancellation stamps sometimes contain special messages. At times they mark a birthday or holiday or contain a message of peace.

This fall, hundreds of thousands of letters may be sent to hundreds of thousands of cities all over the world. And they can be cancelled with a special Oregon Sesquicentennial postmark sent directly from Oregon.

The person to thank for the cancellation idea and the cancellation design is Harry Nurmet, longtime Oregon resident and devoted Oregonite.

"It's a real privilege for a city to have a stamp," says Nurmet. He explains that the cancellation stamp takes some doing to be accepted. Several drafts came and went from Nurmet to the postmaster before a suitable design was accepted.

"There was too much stuff on the design the first few times," says Nurmet. The design now contains the proud figure of Blackhawk.

He continues, "This is an important thing for stamp collectors and especially important to the Oregon people. It will help create even more interest for the Sesquicentennial celebration."

Nurmet and friends plan to horde their letters until the single-issue stamp date arrives this October. "Those who live in Oregon or who have been in Oregon will receive it and feel a special excitement," says Nurmet. "It is definitely a collector's item."

"We are so proud of our Blackhawk statue and our history," he adds. "Everybody who comes here will really like this. It is such a privilege to have."

Nurmet, an avid collector himself, added, "At least this way the world will know that Oregon, Illinois exists and has for 150 years. They will know that we have a Sesquicentennial celebration that day."

Oregon postmaster Stan Gifford is also excited about the project.

"It's going to be very pretty," said Gifford. "It will be honored in the National Philately Magazine."

Gifford added that the cancellation date has been scheduled for Oct. 4 during the Autumn on Parade festivities. "We're hoping to have extended hours at the post office to handle the traffic," said Gifford.

The postmaster explained that the drawing is now in Chicago and will soon be on its way back. "This is very, very special," he said.
