ADON ALLEN YODER, Vice-President of the Poultry-Tribune Publishing Co., publishers of the Poultry Tribune, Hatchery Tribune and Turkey World, now living in Berkeley, Calif., managing the Western offices for his company, came to Mount Morris in 1916 as foreman of the editorial department for Kable Brothers Company. In 1917, he and J. W. Watt purchased the Poultry Tribune from R. R. Fisher, and he acted as editor and advertising manager until his retirement in 1927, when he moved to Chicago and bought the National Chick Advertising Agency. Selling the agency in 1929, he bought a large interest in Prater Pulverizing Company of Chicago, and became Vice-President of that company, spending most of his time in travel abroad for the next two years. In January, 1932, he opened western offices of his publications in Los Angeles, moving to Oakland the next year and to Berkeley in 1937. Mr. Yoder was born in Lynchburg, Va., on August 14th, 1877. He was graduated

(B.A.) from Richmond College, Richmond, Va., in 1900, was principal of High School at Cascade, Va., for one year, preached as a Baptist minister till 1903, when he gave up that work and became book-keeper for the People's National Bank of Lynchburg, Va., for three years. In 1906, he started publication of "The Idea," a monthly, formerly a weekly political reform magazine in Lynchburg and Richmond, Va. In 1903, he was married to S. Annie Marshall, of Lynchburg, and they had three sons; Harry W., Francis M., and Adon Allen, Jr. After the death of the mother in 1915, Mr. Yoder took charge of the editorial department of the Michie Publishing Company at Charlottesville, Va., at the end of the year leaving there for a similar position in Mount Morris. Since the death of his first wife he has married three times, the second and third ending in divorce. He is now living in Berkeley, Calif., with his fourth wife and they have several children. Mr. Yoder is a member of Samuel H. Davis Lodge of Masons of Mount Morris, and of Freeport Consistory.

THE MOUNT MORRIS ELEVATOR COMPANY was incorporated under the laws of Illinois in 1910 and was reorganized in 1923 as a cooperative organization for the marketing of grain. The company has a membership of ninety and a board of directors consisting of nine members as follows: Charles Zumdahl (president), John Stengel (vice-president), I. R. Hendrickson (secretary and treasurer), Ed. L. Stengel, Charles Floto, Harry Baker, Chas. Horst, Geo. Getzendaner and Joseph Young. John G. Dohlen is manager.

KABLE NEWS COMPANY

THE Kable News Company is engaged in the national newsstand distribution of magazines and periodicals. The company makes distribution to approximately 750 wholesalers situated throughout the United States and foreign countries, who in turn supply approximately 80,000 newsdealers.

The Kable News Company was organized in the early part of 1932 and the business has enjoyed a substantial growth since that time. Over 100 magazines are now handled by this company, among which are many printed by Kable Brothers Company.

The company is situated in its own building, having purchased "College Hall" from Kable Brothers Company in 1934.

The company employs 137 people and maintains offices in New York City and Chicago.

The present officers and directors are as follows: H. G. Kable, chairman; S. J. Campbell, president and treasurer; Warren Angel, vice-president; Milo D. Zimmerman, secretary; Charles Stuart, director. Other executives are H. W.

Herrmann, business manager; C. L. Smith, circulation manager; R. B. Martin, assistant treasurer; and A. A. Yoder, traffic manager.

S. J. CAMPBELL, a prominent figure in the business life of Mount Morris, is a native of Mount Carroll, where he was born in 1892. His father and mother, Robert H. and Susan (Miles) Campbell were also life-long residents of Mount Carroll. Mr. Campbell and his father were extensively engaged in banking in Mount Carroll and other surrounding towns and also owners of considerable farm land in that vicinity. He came to Mount Morris in 1930 and became identified with Kable Brothers Company, serving several years as treasurer and more recently as vice-president. He is now actively engaged as president of Kable News Company, magazine distributors. He is a graduate (1914) of Leland Stanford University of Palo Alto, Calif., and while there he met and married Miss Ileen Bullis. He also holds an honorary LL.D. degree from Lincoln Memorial University of Harrogate, Tenn. They continue to reside in Mount Carroll, where they have a beautiful home.
